Graduated from the Moscow State Academic Art Institute named after V.I. Surikov (2007),

Graduated the Institute of Contemporary Art, Moscow (2003).

Member of Moscow Union of Artists.

Grant of the Ministry of Culture (2007-2008, 2016).

Doctor of Art Criticism.

The works of Ivan Korshunov are in private collections in Russia, Austria, Switzerland, Belgium, Germany, Latvia, England, State Art Museum of Novosibirsk and the National Museum of Beijing (China).

Lives and works in Moscow, Russia.

Ivan Korshunov works in the hyperrealistic style of painting, using the old three- stages method of the painting . The author is sure that this method is most organically combined with the philosophy of his work. The most interesting for Ivan is the transformation of traditional images into modern reality, the relation of time and traditions.
